

Leon Telemaque

Consumer Behaviour Analyst & Product Designer

leon.telemaque@gmail.com · Toronto, Ontario · leon-telemaque-portfolio.vercel.app/consumer

Consumer behaviour analyst studying why people make decisions inside designed systems — applied across fintech psychology, subscription retention, and media product strategy. Academic foundation in Marketing and Consumer Culture, with portfolio work spanning interactive dashboards, behavioural models, and product design prototypes. Targeting Summer 2028 internship roles in product management, UX research, and consumer analytics.

PORTFOLIO WORK

GTA Auto Insurance Risk Dashboard [Analytics · Real Data · Équité / IBC / FSRA] — Live analytics dashboard ranking Ontario's 10 highest-risk vehicles by composite theft, driver profile, repair cost, and fraud exposure scores. All data sourced from Équité Association, Insurance Bureau of Canada, and FSRA 2024–2026 reports.

Youth Investment Gap — Transparency Dashboard [Fintech · Interactive Prototype · Wealthsimple UX] — Behavioural analysis of why gamification cannot close the youth investment gap, paired with a Wealthsimple-styled interactive portfolio dashboard demonstrating plain-language transparency at the point of decision.

Hinge — The Most Efficient Carrot on a Stick [Subscription Retention · Behavioural Economics] — Why Hinge operates at a higher emotional register than any other subscription app — the self-terminating product problem, the transparency argument, and the Match Group incentive conflict defeated.

Language Learning Retention Model [Interactive Model · Four Archetypes] — Interactive tool modelling retention across the casual-to-hardcore learner spectrum on gamified vs academic platforms. Four archetypes with 90-day retention curves and app fit assessments. Embedded in written analysis.

Spotify — Give Everything. Sell Comfort. [Freemium Design · Five-Platform Comparison] — How Spotify converts 675M free users by giving away the catalogue and selling the experience — switching cost accumulation, platform partnership seeding, and competitive comparison across Apple Music, YouTube Music, Amazon, SoundCloud.

Lego — The Broadest Funnel in Toy History [Media Strategy · Consumer Behaviour] — How Lego engineered adult audience acquisition through IP licensing as segment mapping, lifestyle sets as identity mirrors, and the Fortnite beachhead. Revenue data and competitive comparison table included.
